Letter of Recommendation

To whom it may concern,

As general manager of USA Global Marketing Inc it is my great pleasure to recommend Mr Kyle George Page to you.

Mr Page joined USAGM nearly 2 years ago and blew us away from his very first month with us!

As the organisation works with independent contractors, it's really important to us to build relationships with individuals who are both independent and self motivated, and Mr Page has proven himself to be just that while displaying an eagerness to show up every day. He is incredibly reliable and will never back away from any challenge he may face.

During his time with us, Mr Page has proven to be dedicated and reliable in both sales positions and leadership positions, where his calm demeanor wins over the toughest client, and motivates the agents who need it most. He is steady and consistent even when his roles demand daily changes with numerous challenges.

I can truly say that, without a shadow of a doubt, Mr Page is an asset to any organisation he works with, and would be a stellar addition to any team!

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions regarding Mr Page.

Warm regards,
